43 described in subdivision (1) of subsection (d) of this section.

44 (b) The business address of any person described in this section, and 45 the address of each town hall, city hall or other municipal building in 46 which the office of the registrars of voters of a municipality is located, 47 shall be subject to disclosure under section 1-210. The provisions of this 48 section shall not apply to Department of Motor Vehicles records 49 described in section 14-10.

50 (c) (1) Except as provided in subsections (a), (b) and (e) of this section, 51 no public agency may disclose the residential address of any person 52 listed in subsection (a) of this section from any record described in 53 subdivision (2) of this subsection that is requested in accordance with 54 the provisions of said subdivision, regardless of whether such person is 55 an employee of the public agency, provided such person has (A) 56 submitted a written request for the nondisclosure of the person's 57 residential address to the public agency, and (B) furnished his or her 58 business address to the public agency.

59 (2) Any public agency that receives a request for a record subject to 60 disclosure under this chapter where such request (A) specifically names 61 a person who has requested that his or her address be kept confidential 62 under subdivision (1) of this subsection, shall make a copy of the record 63 requested to be disclosed and shall redact the copy to remove such 64 person's residential address prior to disclosing such record, (B) is for an 65 existing list that is derived from a readily accessible electronic database, 66 shall make a reasonable effort to redact the residential address of any 67 person who has requested that his or her address be kept confidential 68 under subdivision (1) of this subsection prior to the release of such list, 69 or (C) is for any list that the public agency voluntarily creates in 70 response to a request for disclosure, shall make a reasonable effort to 71 redact the residential address of any person who has requested that his 72 or her address be kept confidential under subdivision (1) of this 73 subsection prior to the release of such list.

74 (3) Except as provided in subsection (a) of this section, an agency shall 75 not be prohibited from disclosing the residential address of any person 76 listed in subsection (a) of this section from any record other than the 77 records described in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, of subdivision 78 (2) of this subsection.

79 (d) (1) Except as provided in subsections (a), (b) and (e) of this section 80 and subject to the provisions of subdivisions (2) and (3) of this 81 subsection, no public agency of a municipality may disclose, under the 82 Freedom of Information Act, from a public record, including any record 83 described in subdivision (2) of subsection (c) of this section, the 84 residential address of any person who is a municipal clerk, registrar of 85 voters, deputy registrar of voters, election official described in section 9-86 258, primary official described in section 9-436 or audit official described 87 in section 9-320f, regardless of whether such person is an employee of 88 the public agency, provided such person has (A) submitted to the 89 municipality a written request for the nondisclosure of the person's 90 residential address, and (B) furnished to the municipality (i) his or her 91 business address, or (ii) if such person does not have a business address, 92 the address of the town hall, city hall or other municipal building in 93 which the office of the registrars of voters of such municipality is 94 located.

95 (2) (A) If a person submits a written request described in subdivision 96 (1) of this subsection prior to the ninetieth day preceding an election, the 97 prohibition in said subdivision against disclosing such person's 98 residential address shall take effect on the ninetieth day preceding such 99 election and shall expire on the ninetieth day following such election.

100 (B) If a person submits a written request described in subdivision (1)

101 of this subsection on or after the ninetieth day preceding an election, the 102 prohibition in said subdivision against disclosing such person's 103 residential address shall take effect upon such submission and shall 104 expire on the ninetieth day following such election.

105 [(3) The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to 106 prohibit the disclosure of the residential address of any person 107 described in subdivision (1) of this subsection in the case where such 108 residential address appears on a public record by virtue of such person 109 holding any elective or appointive state or municipal office other than 110 municipal clerk, registrar of voters or deputy registrar of voters.]

111 (e) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prohibit 112 the disclosure without redaction of any document, as defined in section 113 7-35bb, any list prepared under title 9, or any list published under 114 section 12-55.

115 (f) No public agency or public official or employee of a public agency 116 shall be penalized for violating a provision of this section, unless such 117 violation is wilful and knowing. Any complaint of such a violation shall 118 be made to the Freedom of Information Commission. Upon receipt of 119 such a complaint, the commission shall serve upon the public agency, 120 official or employee, as the case may be, by certified or registered mail, 121 a copy of the complaint. The commission shall provide the public 122 agency, official or employee with an opportunity to be heard at a 123 hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54, 124 unless the commission, upon motion of the public agency, official or 125 employee or upon motion of the commission, dismisses the complaint 126 without a hearing if it finds, after examining the complaint and 127 construing all allegations most favorably to the complainant, that the 128 public agency, official or employee has not wilfully and knowingly 129 violated a provision of this section. If the commission finds that the 130 public agency, official or employee wilfully and knowingly violated a 131 provision of this section, the commission may impose against such 132 public agency, official or employee a civil penalty of not less than twenty 133 dollars nor more than one thousand dollars. Nothing in this section shall 134 be construed to allow a private right of action against a public agency, 135 public official or employee of a public agency.

136 Sec. 2. Section 9-601 of the 2026 supplement to the general statutes is 137 amended by adding subdivision (39) as follows (Effective July 1, 2026):

138 (NEW) (39) "Personal security services" means services rendered to a 139 candidate by one or more individuals, other than on-duty law 140 enforcement personnel, for the personal security of such candidate, such 141 candidate's family or such candidate's campaign staff, which services 142 are necessary as a direct result of campaign activity that would not exist 143 but for such candidate's campaign.

144 Sec. 3. Subsection (e) of section 9-706 of the 2026 supplement to the 145 general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu 146 thereof (Effective July 1, 2026):

147 (e) (1) The State Elections Enforcement Commission shall (A) adopt 148 regulations, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54, on 149 permissible expenditures under subsection (g) of section 9-607, as 150 amended by this act, for qualified candidate committees receiving 151 grants from the fund under sections 9-700 to 9-716, inclusive, [and] (B)
152 on or after July 1, 2021, amend such regulations to permit expenditures 153 for child care services, and (C) on or after July 1, 2026, amend such 154 regulations to permit expenditures for personal security services, which 155 regulations so amended pursuant to this subparagraph shall allow 156 payment for the rendering of such services until the certification of the 157 results of the applicable primary or election.

158 (2) After the amendment of regulations pursuant to [subparagraph 159 (B)] subparagraphs (B) and (C) of subdivision (1) of this subsection, 160 expenditures for child care services and personal security services made 161 by the qualified candidate committee of a participating candidate shall 162 be deemed permissible if such expenditures (A) are, in the aggregate, 163 not more than the amount of qualifying contributions permitted under 164 section 9-704, and (B) comply with all regulations adopted or amended, 165 as applicable, pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection.

166 Sec. 4. Subsection (c) of section 9-710 of the general statutes is 167 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 168 2026):

169 (c) A candidate who intends to participate in the Citizens' Election 170 Program may provide personal funds for such candidate's campaign for 171 nomination or election in an amount not exceeding: (1) For a candidate 172 for the office of Governor, twenty thousand dollars; (2) for a candidate
173 for the office of Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, State
174 Comptroller, State Treasurer or Secretary of the State, ten thousand 175 dollars; (3) for a candidate for the office of state senator, two thousand 176 dollars; or (4) for a candidate for the office of state representative, one 177 thousand dollars. Such personal funds shall not constitute a qualifying 178 contribution under section 9-704. For the purposes of this section, and 179 after the amendment of regulations pursuant to [subparagraph (B)]
180 subparagraphs (B) and (C) of subdivision (1) of subsection (e) of section 181 9-706, as amended by this act, expenditures for child care services or 182 personal security services made directly from any such candidate's 183 personal funds and for which such candidate does not seek 184 reimbursement from his or her candidate committee, as provided in 185 subsection (k) of section 9-607, shall not count toward the amounts 186 provided in subdivisions (1) to (4), inclusive, as applicable, of this 187 subsection.

188 Sec. 5. Subdivision (2) of subsection (g) of section 9-607 of the general 189 statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof
190 (Effective July 1, 2026):

191 (2) Unless otherwise provided by this chapter, any treasurer, in 192 accomplishing the lawful purposes of the committee, may pay the 193 expenses of: (A) Advertising in electronic and print media; (B) any other 194 form of printed advertising or communications including "thank you"

195 advertising after the election; (C) campaign items, including, but not 196 limited to, brochures, leaflets, flyers, invitations, stationery, envelopes, 197 reply cards, return envelopes, campaign business cards, direct mailings,

 199 similar items; (D) political banners and billboards; (E) political 200 paraphernalia, which is customarily given or sold to supporters 201 including, but not limited to, campaign buttons, stickers, pins, pencils, 202 pens, matchbooks, balloons, pads, calendars, magnets, key chains, hats, 203 tee shirts, sweatshirts, frisbees, pot holders, jar openers and other 204 similar items; (F) purchasing office supplies for campaign or political 205 purposes, campaign photographs, raffle or other fund-raising permits 206 required by law, fund-raiser prizes, postage, express mail delivery
 207 services, bulk mail permits, and computer supplies and services; (G) 208 banking service charges to maintain campaign and political accounts; 209 (H) subscriptions to newspapers and periodicals which enhance the 210 candidacy of the candidate or party; (I) lease or rental of office space for 211 campaign or political purposes and expenses in connection therewith
 212 including, but not limited to, furniture, parking, storage space, utilities 213 and maintenance, provided a party committee or political committee 214 organized for ongoing political activities may purchase such office 215 space; (J) lease or rental of vehicles for campaign use only; (K) lease, 216 rental or use charges of any ordinary and necessary campaign office 217 equipment including, but not limited to, copy machines, telephones, 218 postage meters, facsimile machines, computer hardware, software and 219 printers, provided a party committee or political committee organized 220 for ongoing political activities may purchase office equipment, and 221 provided further that a candidate committee or a political committee, 222 other than a political committee formed for ongoing political activities
 223 or an exploratory committee, may purchase computer equipment; (L) 224 compensation for campaign or committee staff, fringe benefits [] and 225 payroll taxes, [and child care services, provided (i)] provided the 226 candidate and any member of his immediate family shall not receive 227 compensation; [, and (ii) compensation for child care services is 228 reasonable and customary for the services rendered;] (M) travel, meals

229 and lodging expenses of speakers, campaign or committee workers, the 230 candidate and the candidate's spouse for political and campaign 231 purposes; (N) fund raising; (O) reimbursements to candidates and 232 campaign or committee workers made in accordance with the 233 provisions of this section for campaign-related expenses for which a 234 receipt is received by the treasurer; (P) campaign or committee services 235 of attorneys, accountants, consultants or other professional persons for 236 campaign activities, obtaining or contesting ballot status, nomination, 237 or election, and compliance with this chapter; (Q) purchasing campaign 238 finance reports; (R) repaying permissible campaign loans made to the 239 committee that are properly reported and refunding contributions 240 received from an impermissible source or in excess of the limitations set 241 forth in this chapter; (S) conducting polls concerning any political party, 242 issue, candidate or individual; (T) gifts to campaign or committee 243 workers or purchasing flowers or other commemorative items for 244 political purposes not to exceed one hundred dollars to any one 245 recipient in a calendar year or for the campaign, as the case may be; (U) 246 purchasing tickets or advertising from charities, inaugural committees, 247 or other civic organizations if for a political purpose, for any candidate, 248 a candidate's spouse, a member of a candidate's campaign staff, or 249 members of committees; (V) the inauguration of an elected candidate by 250 that candidate's candidate committee; (W) hiring of halls, rooms, music
 251 and other entertainment for political meetings and events; (X)
 252 reasonable compensation for public speakers hired by the committee;
 253 (Y) transporting electors to the polls and other get-out-the-vote activities
 254 on election day; [and] (Z) child care services or personal security 255 services, provided the amount paid for such services is reasonable and 256 customary for the services rendered; and (AA) any other necessary 257 campaign or political expense.

258 Sec. 6. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2026) There is established an account 259 to be known as the "legislative safety account", which shall be a separate, 260 nonlapsing account. The account shall contain any moneys required by 261 law to be deposited in the account. Moneys in the account shall be 262 expended by the Joint Committee on Legislative Management for the 263 purposes of safety, protection and security of state legislators and state 264 legislative staff.

265 Sec. 7. (Effective July 1, 2026) (a) Any moneys received by the Joint 266 Committee on Legislative Management from a national organization 267 representing the interests of legislatures in the states, territories and 268 commonwealths of the United States, during the fiscal year ending June 269 30, 2027, shall be deposited in the legislative safety account established 270 pursuant to section 6 of this act.

271 (b) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2027, there shall be 272 appropriated to the Joint Committee on Legislative Management from 273 the General Fund, for deposit in the legislative safety account 274 established pursuant to section 6 of this act, a sum equal in amount to 275 any moneys received by said joint committee as described in subsection 276 (a) of this section.

277 (c) For purposes of the appropriation or appropriations described in 278 subsection (b) of this section, whenever the Joint Committee on 279 Legislative Management receives any moneys from a national 280 organization described in subsection (a) of this section during the fiscal 281 year ending June 30, 2027, the executive director of said committee shall 282 certify to the Treasurer the amount of such moneys so received.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:

Section 1	October 1, 2026	1-217
Sec. 2	July 1, 2026	9-601(39)
Sec. 3	July 1, 2026	9-706(e)
Sec. 4	July 1, 2026	9-710(c)
Sec. 5	July 1, 2026	9-607(g)(2)
Sec. 6	July 1, 2026	New section
Sec. 7	July 1, 2026	New section

Statement of Purpose:

To (1) amend the Freedom of Information Act to provide that public agencies may not disclose, from their personnel, medical or similar files, the residential addresses of certain public officials and employees, (2) permit candidate committees to expend campaign funds for personal security services, and (3) (A) establish a "legislative safety account" from which the Joint Committee on Legislative Management may expend moneys for purposes of state legislator and state legislative staff safety, and (B) provide for funding of such account.
